Welcome to Emerald City Football Academy

About the program:

Emerald City Football Academy provides individual and small group skill development classes as well as PowerHouse strength and speed lessons. This combination of specific skill training and strength and speed courses is a formula for success when it comes to the game of football. The strength classes focus on muscle stamina and explosive power. You can find more information on the PowerHouse program at ecpowerhouse.com. While the very specific skill development classes are aimed at teaching and correcting football technique. In an individual or small group setting these changes and improvements will be easy to make. Emerald City Football Academy focuses on all skill positions. Along with all of this it is our vision at ECFA that we provide our athletes with the opportunity to apply their newly honed skills in as many game-like situations as possible. As a result, ECFA is in the process of finding and creating off season passing leagues, flag football leagues, and 7 on 7 tournaments in the great Seattle area. Training currently takes place at ECBA in whatever gym space is available, however Chris would love to meet somewhere in the greater Seattle area to provide training. Field space will be up to the athlete if training is not done at ECBA located at 1550 West Armory Way, Seattle.
